"PRIVATE JOHN ALLEN."

The tour which that really sterling actor, Mr. Charles B. Hanford is now filling with so much success, in some respects the most remarkable of his career. Mr. Hanford has long been known wherever Shakespeare is admired, and he has charmed his audience, both in heavy parts, such as "Marc Anthony," and in those which offered now and then a shade of comedy. In spite of this versatility, there was no suspicion until recently, that he contemplated forsaking the savorous blank verse of the classics for the unutilized conversation of modern, every-day folk. This he has done in his new play "Private John Allen," written by Mr. Lee Arthur.

The present production is made on an elaborate and expensive scale, and is the result of much study and preparation by Mr. Hanford. A preliminary engagement in Washington, D. C., left no doubt in Mr. Hanford's mind as to the merits of "Private John Allen."

The play tells a story of the South—not a conventional melodramatic story of a love affair between a Northern man and a Southern woman, but a picture of home and simple duty and honest ambition. Yet with all its idyllic qualities "Private John Allen" is full of soul-stirring situations. The plot is an intricate one, and develops one situation after another with such rapidity and at the same time with such smoothness as to stamp Mr. Arthur as a master of plot-construction. Miss Marie Drofna, who plays the leading feminine role, has been received with the highest appreciation in such organizations as that of the late Thos. W. Keene, McLean-Tyler-Hanford Company, and James-Kidder-Hanford Company. A winsome personality and extraordinary talent eminently adapt her to the role she assumes in this production. The company has been carefully selected with a view to securing a correct portrayal of the types introduced in the play, which range from the comic to the heroic. The cast is as follows:

John Allen, familiarly known as "Private John Allen," Mr. Charles B. Hanford.

Hon. Alexis Lemmee, a Candidate for Governor, Mr. Walter Montague.

Major Edgar Wadsworth, Mr. Charles Mylott.

Col. Nat Stone, Owner of Caddo Parish Livery Stable, Mr. Daniel Murphy.

Phil Stone, the Colonel's son, Candidate for District Attorney, Mr. Thomas Solan.

Billy Wasson, a Country Justice of the Peace, Mr. John H. Burnett.

Lem Blackman, a Lawyer, Wm. LaVelle.

Uncle Si, Mr. Allen's Servant, Mr. John W. Bankson.

Bessie Stokes, Miss Helene Nelson.

Miss Mildred Allen, Daughter of John Allen, Miss Eloise May Covey.

Rai Wadsworth, Daughter of Major Wadsworth, Miss Clara Baker.

Ruth Blackman, Sister-In-Law of Lem Blackman, Engaged to John Allen, Miss Maire Drofna.

Mr. Hanford's engagement in this city is announced for Monday night, March 18, 1901.

an open field to cooperate with him. Albeit he scoured the open field, pursued the enemy eighteen miles, scattered it as thoroughly as Wellington did the hosts of Bonaparte at Waterloo, and in short "he was monarch of all he surveyed."

General Otis, in official dispatch, said: "You did right to attack, but should not have pursued him so far." Just what the General meant by "so far" is not altogether clear, because there has not been any considerable band of the enemy in that region of the country since. This sortie and chase gave the regiment a sobriquet it will wear in history—Bullard's American Indians—and it will wear it as becomes all heroes of the Philippines.

Regimental Conquests.

Six severe fights followed in rapid succession: San Cristobal River, Carmona, Viga Bridge, San Francisco, Rosario and San Diego, interspersed with countless skirmishes, and brilliant dashes. The months of January and February were replete with victories and captures, 350 square miles of tropical territory having been traversed, containing a population of over 100,000 people, all accomplished in a trifle less than sixty days, entailing great loss of life in the ranks of Filipino soldiery, and in the capture of supplies, arms, ammunition, horses, cattle and transportation facilities. Well may it be said that this engendered great hatred against the invading foreigner on the part of resident natives, both in arms and otherwise. It was but natural, indeed, that this foreign people should receive this regiment with suspicion and hatred, but it gradually melted away under the warm hearts of Col. Bullard and his men, for they tempered justice with mercy.

The marches intermitting the fights mentioned were of the most arduous character. Many times the brave men of the regiment went on short rations, and Gen. Schwan was very felicitous in open expression to Col. Bullard and his men. He said: "The regiment formed a part of the expeditionary brigade under my command; that the object of the column to which it belonged was the destruction of the enemy in parts of the provinces of Cavite and Laguna, and in the provinces of Batangas and Tayabas; that the insurgent organizations of the territory were intact and had been re-enforced by accessions from the north."

"The work of the expedition was practically accomplished within three weeks. This gratifying result is due in part to the excellent work of your regiment. It involved long marches under a tropical sun, the marches mostly over the roughest conceivable trails, frequently interrupted by combats with the enemy, performed on short allowances of food which, most of the time, had to be carried on the persons of the men."

"Your regiment participated in the capture of Lipa, the skirmish incident thereto, and the brilliant dash to Rosario; also in the march to and capture of Batangas, the rapid march through hostile country to Rosario, and thence to San Pablo, the engagement at San Diego Hill, where Langhorne's battalion formed part of the advance guard, and fought a stubborn enemy, entrenched in a commanding position, for two hours, winning the fight. The capture of Ugarlang, Lilio, and the mountain stronghold of Majayjay. "Mulford's battalion captured Majayjay, letting themselves down man by man by a rope into a deep cavern. They pulled themselves up by vines on the opposite side, taking the enemy by surprise in the flank of the trenches, and thence the long march, by justly deemed impracticable trails for

DEATHS.

POLSGROVE—On the West Side, on Tuesday morning, Mr. Henry Polsgrove, aged 24 years, of typhoid fever.

The funeral services were conducted at the residence of his cousin, Mr. O. B. Polsgrove, on Wednesday, and the remains were buried at Antioch.

JAMES—At the home of her mother, Mrs. Martha R. George, near Lee's Summit, Mo., on Friday, March 8th, Mrs. Mary T. James, aged about 35 years.

Mrs. James was the granddaughter of the late Mr. Wm. M. Todd, and daughter of the late Mr. Richard B. George. She leaves one daughter. Her death was due to la grippe. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church. The funeral and burial took place on Sunday.

O'NAN—At his home, near Polsgrove, this county, on Tuesday, Mr. Geo. O'Nan, aged about 55 years.

Mr. O'Nan was a prominent and popular gentleman. The funeral took place from the residence, on Wednesday, after which the remains were buried in the Campbell Steele burying ground.

McEWAN—At the residence of Mr. L. Frank Johnson, in this city, on Sunday last, Mr. Hunt McEwan, son of the late Wm.

McEwan, Esq., aged about 40 years, of consumption.

Mr. McEwan had not been confined to his bed, but was out on the streets Saturday, and the end came suddenly. He was unmarried. He leaves two sisters and one brother to mourn his death.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Savage, of the Methodist Church, on Monday morning, and the remains were placed in the family lot in our cemetery.

SHEPARD—At her residence, on Broadway, this city, on Monday afternoon at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Mary T. Shepard, wife of Mr. Sam. S. Shepard, aged 42 years, of consumption.

Mrs. Shepard was a beautiful, amiable and earnest Christian, having been a member of the Baptist Church from her young womanhood. Her maiden name was Gouge. In early girlhood she was married to Mr. Shepard, and their union had been an ideally happy one—each as devoted and thoughtful as though just united. Several children were born to them, but only one, Miss Flora Belle, has been spared to them—she being about 16 years of age—just blooming into a lovely young womanhood.

Mrs. Shepard had lived in this city quite a number of years, Mr. Shepard being a clerk in the Register's Office, and afterwards in the Auditor's Office under Auditor Sweeney.

Frail and delicate at all times, her health had steadily failed for the last year, confining her to her home; the greater part of the time.

But though the flesh failed, she "knew in whom she had believed," and when the grim summons came, she met him with undaunted spirit—ready to go hence and be at rest.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. M. B. Adams, from the First Baptist Church, at 2:30 o'clock, on Wednesday, and the remains were carried to her old home at Georgetown for interment on the 8:40 P. & C. train.

We knew Mrs. Shepard and admired her for her gentle and lovely character.

To the sadly bereft and broken-hearted husband and orphan daughter, we tender the sincerest sympathy.

MATRIMONIAL.

HARPER-CROCKER—In Pittsburg, Penn., on Tuesday evening, Col. Geo. B. Harper, General Superintendent of the Frankfort & Cincinnati Railway, and Miss Hallie Neal Crocker were married by Rev. Dr. Kumlter, of the East Liberty Presbyterian Church.

This happy event was noted by us in advance. The bride is said to be as splendid a woman as George Harper is a man, and that's enough for any one to say. They will be at home, on Shelby street, after April 1st.

Mrs. C. E. Van Dusen, of Kilbourn, Wis., was afflicted with stomach and constipation for a long time. She says, "I have tried many preparations but none have done me the good that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have." These tablets are for sale by J. W. Gayle. Price 25c. Sample free.

ON THE ROAD

All the time, eating irregularly, sleeping irregularly, exposed to every disease latent in bad cooking or poor food; that's a summary of the traveling man's life. The result is "stomach trouble"; that general term which covers various forms and stages of disease of the organs of digestion and nutrition. The traveling man doesn't avoid the troubles which spring from his business obligations. He can avoid "stomach trouble." If Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is used when the early symptoms of derangement of the stomach manifest themselves, the cure will be quick and radical. But even if the disease has become chronic the "Discovery" will cure ninety-eight times out of every hundred if tried fairly and faithfully.

Mr. Ned Nelson, the celebrated Irish comedian and mimic, of 37 Bowden St., Camden, N. J., writes: "We fulfilled an engagement of twelve weeks and the constant traveling gave me a bad touch of that dreaded disease called dyspepsia. I had tried everything possible to cure it till last week, while playing at B. F. Keith's Bijou Theater, Philadelphia, in the Nelsons' trio, a professional friend of mine advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I tried it, and, thank God, with good results." Free! Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps, to cover expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the same book cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 16, 1901.

DEATH OF PAT McDONALD, SR., ESQ.

After months of great suffering, Mr. Pat. McDonald, sr., laid down life's burdens on Thursday morning at 7:10 o'clock. Mr. McDonald was born, and spent his life of about 50 years in this city. He was a printer by trade, having learned the business in the old Yeoman Office, under of the late Col. S. I. M. Major.

For many years he was a magistrate in this county, and made one of the most intelligent and faithful that ever occupied the bench.

He was eminently a man of affairs, and had acquired a competence by his own unaided exertions.

He had, while a magistrate, studied law and was admitted to the bar, doing a very considerable amount of business, largely, however, of office practice.

In September, 1880, he established the Western Argus, a weekly Democratic paper, in this city, and edited it with vigor and ability. His views were decided and emphatic, and he had the courage to advocate them at all times.

We have been associated with Mr. McDonald since boyhood, and our relations have always been pleasant and cordial.

When a young man, Mr. McDonald was married to Miss Ann Flynn, his boyhood sweetheart, and their union has been a very happy and congenial one. Two children were born to them (Miss Jennie and Mr. Pat McDonald, jr.), and they, together with his heart-broken wife, are left to mourn an indulgent and loving husband and father.

Besides the immediate family, he leaves one brother, Mr. John McDonald, jr., of this city, and one sister (Mrs. Ann Buckley, of Louisville.)

The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Father Tom Major, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, at 2 o'clock to-day, and the remains buried in the family lot in the Catholic Cemetery. To the bereft we tender our sincerest condolence.

THE STEWART HOME.

We are in receipt of a copy of the history and catalogue of the "Stewart Home," located near Farmdale (formerly the noted Ky. Military Institute), a private institution for the care, training and education of children who are backward and of feeble development mentally, as well as for the treatment of persons suffering with nervous diseases.

Dr. John P. Stewart is a thoroughly qualified physician, abreast of the times in his science, and was associated with his lamented father in this institution until the latter's death.

There are quite a large number of persons now at this Home, and it is very successful in its work.

The catalogue is from the press of the Geo. A. Lewis publishing House, and is a well executed piece of work.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.

On Sunday last Dr. E. E. Hume, assisted by Drs. John South and A. S. Minniss, operated upon a lad named Lester O. Marshall, son of Mr. Chas. S. Marshall, of this county, and removed two or three pieces from the left thigh bone, which had become diseased with tubercular degeneration. The little fellow was under anaesthetics about half hour. The operation was highly successful, and the lad is doing splendidly.

LOTS OF GOOD FISH.

As Benson was running out, Sunday morning, the high water forced a big lot of fish, who were striving to get into clear water, out to the banks, and a great many fine ones were caught. Several bass weighing five pounds and others of other kinds, were landed. The water ran across the river at least two feet higher than that in the river.

Prof. Ivson, of Lonaconing, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

Getting Thin

Is all right, if you are too fat and all wrong, if too thin already.

Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: over-work and under-digestion.

Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work—you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE Chemists, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S CUTTING.

A colored man named Squire Todd, of Shelbyville, came here on Sunday night. About 11 o'clock he went into the saloon of Councilman Thos. Gruffy and called for beer. Three colored men were present and made some remark to him, to which he replied, drank his beer and went out. The men followed him out, and one of them struck him in the corner of the mouth with a knife, cutting a gash running down into the neck. Todd gathered a brick, knocked one of them down, and took to his heels. Coming up town he found a policeman who had his wounds dressed.

Later a colored man named Innes Clark was arrested and put in the lockup charged with the cutting. The other two men, whom Todd says he could not identify, were not arrested.

The lingering cough following gripe calls for One Minute Cough Cure. For all throat and lung troubles this is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Prevents consumption. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

SALES OF PROPERTY.

The committee who have in charge the liquidation of the Farmers Bank have sold real estate as follows:

The two-story brick residence of Church Bros., on Main street, to Mrs. L. A. Berry, for $8,500.

The Minus Williams brick livery stable, on Second street, South Side, for $8,500, to Mr. W. H. Posey.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for gripe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

REMARKABLE CURE.

Some two or three weeks since Mrs. Joel S. Head, of this city, was writing a letter when suddenly her left side was paralyzed. The usual remedies were used without avail. Upon suggestion of friends, she was placed under the care of Dr. Richard P. Buckmaster, the Osteopathic physician, of this city. Soon after he commenced treating Mrs. Head she began to improve steadily, and has now regained the use of herself almost entirely. She requests us to give this item to the public. The cure thus effected is little less than marvelous.

THE BEST SALVE IN THE WORLD.

Is Banner Salve. It is made from a prescription by a world wide known skin specialist, and is positively the most healing salve for piles, burns, scalds, ulcers, running sores and all skin diseases. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL INSTITUTE TO BE CONDUCTED HERE.

Mr. E. A. Fox, General Secretary of Kentucky Sunday-school Association, is to be in Frankfort, March 26th and 27th to meet with local Sunday-school workers. The sessions of the Institute will probably be held at the Y. M. C. A. Building. The program will be made up of strong addresses and papers which will prove of special interest and help to all Sunday-school workers.

The teachers and friends of Sunday-schools outside of Frankfort are urged to come and take part in the sessions. The program will be announced next week.

Eugene J. Hall, the poet and publisher, says that one dose of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice when hoarseness threatened to prevent his lecture at Central Music Hall, Chicago. Nothing else as good. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

THANKS.

The Ladies Committee of the Y. M. C. A. desire to return thanks to the citizens and merchants generally, who have donated so many of the articles sold by them, and which made their "Rummage Sale" a success. They have done so well that they contemplate holding another in the near future, of which due notice will be given.

See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. The genuine is a certain cure for piles, sores and skin diseases. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

COMMISSIONERS FOR ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION.

President McKinley has appointed the following gentlemen as members of the Government Commission of the St. Louis Exposition:

Hon. Wm. Lindsay, of Kentucky; Hon. Thos. H. Carter, of Montana; Hon. John M. Thurston, of Nebraska; Hon. Geo. W. McBride, of Oregon; Hon. Wm. A. Rodenburg, of Illinois; Hon. John M. Allen, of Mississippi. The position pays $5,000 per annum and expenses of each.

When you are bilious, use those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

RUMMAGE SALES.

The rummage sales under the auspices of the Ladies Committee of the Y. M. C. A., have been a success from the start. Lots of odds and ends that were useful to some one, even if not to the original owners, have been sold and the proceeds go to the Y. M. C. A. These sales will conclude tonight. They have been held at the former stand of Mr. W. P. Hudson, jr., corner of Main and St. Clair streets.

The stomach controls the situation. Those who are hearty and strong are those who can eat and digest plenty of food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching or any other stomach trouble, this preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomach can take it. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

HAVE IT REPAIRED.

There is a space of about a yard square, in the pavement on the east side of St. Clair street, at the north end of the bridge, which has no brick on it. They were taken up to repair the water pipe, we believe, and have never been replaced. It is dangerous to pedestrians, is the property of the city, and should be repaired at once before there is a law suit on account of injuries to some one.

The Chafing Dish

What memories it brings up. In the hands of your inexperienced friend that evening for the first time, it caused you, perhaps, an uneasy and restless season of "seeing things" in your dreams. What was it? A Welch Rarebit, or —? who can tell? But seriously, the chafing dish is a source of a deal of pleasure. We can show you a variety from the Meriden Britannia Co., with all the fittings that are convenient to use with them—Trays, Spoons, Forks, Skimmers, Flanges, etc. The dishes are heavily plated on copper or nickel silver, carefully finished; the lamp is particularly good, giving a strong and steady flame, easily regulated. As a means of helping little social gatherings to be a success, a chafing dish is unequalled. Have one in your room and invite in your friends. A beautifully illustrated little book with full directions, containing fifty reliable receipts, with each dish.

Strong nerves. They are the fountain from which flows all the energy, all the strength and all the vital powers of the body. If you are tired and nervous, irritable, restless, run-down and sleepless, build up your worn-out nerves with "My wife was down with nervous prostration and general debility for years, and nothing we could do for her seemed to do her any good. When we heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine we dropped all other treatment and began giving her that medicine, and the results were apparent from the start. She improved so rapidly that in a few months she had regained her old-time health and energy, and they returned to stay." C. W. OLMSTED, Kickapoo, Okla.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap.

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by S. B. Holmes. 4-ly.

A man named E. Presson, of Pressonville, Kansas, wrote a letter the other day, saying the opinion of everybody in his town who had used Foley's Honey and Tar is, that it is the very best medicine for grippe, colds, cough, etc. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and your grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by S. B. Holmes. 4-ly.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON DEAD.

One of the noblest, most upright and cleanest public men of this country passed away on Wednesday afternoon when ex-President Benjamin Harrison entered into rest eternal.

He was a brilliant orator; cool-headed and judicial-minded lawyer; an earnest, fearless patriot and lover of his country; and (better than all) an humble Christian man.

General Harrison won his way to the highest office in the world by straight-forward, independent, honest, consistent devotion to the principles which he believed conserved the best interests of the people, and the glory of his country.

He filled the great office in a manner to win the confidence of the earnest, honest, plain people of the country, and left it without the slightest whisper as to his integrity.

Faults he had (and grave ones), but they were of the head and not the heart. He carries with him the benedictions of the good and true, and leaves a rich heritage to his surviving family.

A LITTLE KNOWN FACT.

BROUGHT HOME FOR BURIAL.

The remains of Mrs. Lizzie Watson McEwan, wife of Rev. Dr. Wm. L. McEwan, of Pittsburgh, Penn., were brought to her home in this city on Sunday for burial. They came on a special train over the F. & C. Railroad from Georgetown. Owing to a wreck on the Q. & C., the train did not reach this city until 2 o'clock p. m., and the funeral services were conducted at the cemetery by Rev. Dr. J. McConkey Blayney.

tery by Rev. Dr. J. McConkey Blayney.

Mrs. McEwan was the daughter of the late Mr. John Watson, for so many years cashier of the Deposit Bank of this city, and a sister of the late Mr. H. Howe Watson. She was a lovely woman, and leaves many warm friends and relatives in this city.

Besides a devoted husband she leaves three children to mourn her untimely death.

To our friend, who has thus lost the loved wife of his youth, and the dear orphaned children, we tender the sincerest sympathy.

It is not so much what the newspapers say, as what neighbor says to neighbor, or friend to friend, that has brought Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy into such general use.

It is as natural for people to express their gratitude after using this remedy as it is for water to flow down hill. It is the one remedy that can always be depended upon, whether a baby be sick with cholera infantum or a man with cholera morbus. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. Have you a bottle of it in your home? For sale by J. W. Gayle, South & Longmoor.

TWICE PROVEN.

From the Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C.

The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder, from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by J. W. Gayle, South & Longmoor.

SMALL FIRE.

One morning a week ago, the roof of the residence of Mr. W. H. Hawkins, on the Louisville pike, near the reservoir, caught fire, while the family were at breakfast. A lady passing by, coming to town, discovered the flames and notified Mr. Hawkins. Prompt action upon his part, aided by his two boys, saved the house from destruction. The loss was covered by a policy in the Winchester Insurance Company, of New York, and was promptly settled by Messrs. W. P. Scott & Co., local agents of the company.

LION COFFEE

A LUXURY WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL!

Watch our next advertisement.

If you went to buy a lion whelp you wouldn't accept a kitten as a substitute, even if the dealer urges you.

Now, don't accept a substitute for

LION COFFEE.

It is bound to turn out a common yellow cat, with none of the strength of the lion.

You want LION COFFEE because it is LION COFFEE.

If, on the other hand, you want a coffee which, in order to hide imperfections, is "highly polished" with eggs and other preparations, then do not buy

LION COFFEE.

If LION COFFEE were common, ordinary stuff, coffee drinkers wouldn't insist on having it. It is used in millions of homes because it is the best coffee in the world for the price. If you doubt this, take a single package home and try it.

In every package of LION COFFEE you will find a fully illustrated and descriptive list. No housekeeper, in fact, no woman, man, boy or girl will fail to find in the list some article which will contribute to their happiness, comfort and convenience, and which they may have simply cutting out a certain number of Lion Heads from the wrappers of our one pound sealed packages (which is the only form in which this excellent coffee is sold).

WOLSON SPICE CO., TOLEDO, OHIO.

American soldiers, and through mountain fastnesses of the enemy, to Lucaban, Mauban, down the coast to Antemunan, thence to Tayabas. All this constitutes a record of marching, fighting and valuable service, of which your regiment may feel justly proud. "A sense of duty impels me, and it affords me great pleasure to express to you, and through you to the officers and men of the Thirty-ninth Infantry, my sincere thanks for their soldierly conduct during this trying campaign."

Epitomizing the work of the Thirty-ninth in importance resolves itself into the points in context:

First, movement north January 1st to Calubayan, South Rosa and Buan.

Second, movement south January 9th to Santa Tomas, occupying a line from Laguna de Bay to Lake Taal.

Third, fight at San Diego Hill January 21st.

Fourth, Langhorne's march to the Pacific January 28th to February 4th.

Fifth, operations about Majajay January 22d and 23d.

Sixth, fight at San Francisco February 13th.

Seventh, fight at Bay, March 10th.

Col. Bullard was outnumbered ten or at many points where he met the enemy, and on January 1st and 2d the enemy's fire was concentrated upon him two or more times, but in the vernacular of the negro he was never "teched." While there may be something in the old adage, "the good die young," it found no exemplification as it might apply to the commander of the Thirty-ninth. However pressed, his maxim was, "never turn back," and he never did. His field support, Majors Langhorne, Mulford and Parker, were seemingly omnipresent. Langhorne covered himself with glory at San Diego Hill, and Mulford at Majajay. Parker was equally successful at points in the initial assaults. Langhorne was supported by Captains Hor, Gaughy, Kreger and Ger; Mulford by Hilton, Macnus, Thorburne and Burt, and Parker by Captains Green and Ig, and Lieutenants Welch and 4th. Words in this connection, never, are superfluous, for reference to the field and company I will tell the reader where they all were, and the connected details give judgment of what they did.

When Gen. Schwan closed the campaign in the South it was not only victory but conquest, and Col. Bullard commenced the work of pacification and civil government, in which he was equally successful. Calamba, Los Banos, Santo Tomas, Tannan and San Pablo give ample evidence of it. Tugal suspicion gave way to confidence, and there were very few armed insurgents in all that section of the country.

Col. Bullard's work was such that congratulations were showered upon him. Gen. Bates said: "Am pleased with the efficiency with which you scouted the country and struck the enemy where-over found."

Gen. Wheaton:

"Your reconnaissance and operations as reported are very satisfactory."

Incidents of Gallantry.

Col. Bullard's American Indians are not all officers. They are found in the ranks of the "non-coms" and high privates.

Corporal Evans, of K Company, while on a scouting expedition with a squad of men, became isolated from the comrades while in a skirmish, and he suddenly found himself confronted by eighty or more insurgents, armed with Mausers, Remingtons and Bolos. In his retreat Sergeant Vorrie, a comrade, was killed. Pressed hard, he sought the shelter of a canon, or quich, and with his trusty krag and about a hundred rounds of ammunition he turned at bay. For five days and nights, without food, without water, save "dews of heaven" that wet the leaves, killing a large number of them. When rescued, eleven rounds of ammunition were all he had left, and although exhausted from hunger and fatigue, his courage was still with him. When questioned by an officer as to what he intended to do, he said: "Ten rounds were for the savages." "And the last one?" "Oh, that was for myself." Evans is as much a hero as Hobson, of Merrimac fame.

While a squad of Casey's men were on a scout out from Santo Tomas, the men came suddenly upon a band of seven insurgents. Corporal Steele was in advance, and on spying them he brought his krag to a quick aim and fired, killing three of them at one shot. They were in a single file line, and his messenger of death crashed through their bodies and they were dead a moment later. The three guns were taken to Calamba as trophies of the most remarkable shot of the insurrection.

When the by-ways were cleared for entering Rosario, Col. Bullard called for volunteers for the dash, and although Col. Anderson, of the Thirty-eighth, the ranking officer, was in command, he did not forbid it and joined the gallant band, which, with them, comprised Col. Crane, Major Longhorne, Capt. Gains, Capt. Read, Lieutenants Frank and Doane, Private Eruidenth, Col. Bullard's orderly, Corp. C. M. Simmons and two other men. It was a brilliant affair. No information was at hand as to what might confront them, or as to the strength of the enemy. Death traps and death was possible for all. The enemy had fled, but the attacking party found and liberated 75 to 100 Spanish prisoners, a lot of men and women, as happy and joyous as prisoners at Libby and Belle Isle when Col. Lee struck his flag at Appomattox. The knowledge that these prisoners were in Rosario may have induced Col. Bullard to make the bold venture, and it may be said in this connection that the Thirty-ninth was instrumental in liberating a large number of prisoners, both American and Spanish, in the several towns it reduced and captured.

Odds and Ends.

This regiment, as before stated, came to the Philippines 1270 strong. Its roster to-day shows less than 800 men for duty, a diminution approximately of 35 per cent. Mausers and Remingtons made sad ravages in its ranks. Disease, the result of exposure and hardships, did the rest. Still the battered remnant is cheerful and ready to go where the old flag leads.

Col. Bullard has a good deal of satisfaction in knowing that the Third Alabama, his old regiment, furnished more officers and men for the Philippines than any other volunteer regiment in the United States service during the Spanish-American war. And all, or nearly all, of them have distinguished themselves in quelling the insurrection here.

With the story of those who fell in battle, and the mortuary record, the history of the Thirty-ninth, Col. Bullard's American Indians, will have been written.

Four companies are now at Balayan, two a Taal, two at Passay, and four at Exposition Barracks in Malate. Officers and men are enjoying rest now so far as it is possible to obtain it in the United States Army. Concluding, The American wishes them God speed wherever duty may call them, and again I say, Spartans all of them.

SLIGHT BLAZE MONDAY.

At 5:50 o'clock on Monday afternoon an alarm from box 19 called the department to a tenant house belonging to Mr. John D. Griffin, on Steele street. The blaze was a small one on the roof, and was quickly extinguished with trifling loss. We can not too highly commend the efficiency and rapidity with which the boys have responded to all alarms of late, and great loss has thus been averted.
